Christening & Naming Day Celebrations

We are always delighted to welcome the special occasions when family and friends come together to celebrate the naming of a son or daughter.

Whether it be a sit down formal meal or an informal buffet we can cater to your specific requirements.

In this brochure a number of options are outlined, these are our most popular choices.

If there is something that you would particularly like then please let the Events Manager know and we will do our best to put together a unique package for you.

We can offer additional Children Menu's if you have a large number of children attending who may not wish to eat the same meal as the adults.
